Mysore 8th Aug 1910

My dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. No. 1183, dated 4th August 1910, desiring me to inform the Dewan, of the grounds, if any, on which I seek Confirmation, I beg to State, that I was appointed directly by H.H. the Maharaja at the end of July 1908 i.e. Some Months prior to the Civil Service Examination of that year and that I was not appointed under Rule IX (1) of the Civil Service Rules published in Proceedings No G. 8139/G. Mc. 12-06--00 dated 27th June 1907.

Hence I beg to Submit that the period of probation in my Case depends on the pleasure of our gracious Maharaja who I am Sure will grant my prayer provided the noble Dewan recommends that I have passed all the prescribed tests and that I have put in

Mr Venkataranyam, being a Prob. Asst. Commr. of Schedule B as clearly stated in the order of his appointment, is eligible for confirmation only after three years' probation under Rule X of the Mysore Civil Service Rules. It is difficult to understand how the fact of his having been appointed "some months prior to the Civil Service Examn." makes any difference. He appears to base his request on a literal construction of Rule IX (1) in which it is stated that "the grade of Asst. Commrs of Schedule B shall be recruited soon after the results of each Civil Service Examination are known." As regards this it may be stated that Mr Venkataranyam's nomination should be considered to have been made after the Civil Service Exam. of 1907, no other nominations to the Civil Service having been made after the results of that Examination were published in December 07, & before the next Exam. was held in Nov. 08

The papers in the Office about the appointment of Mr Venkatarangam to the Civil Service are put up. At the time of his appointment the Civil Service Rules of June 1907 were in full force and his appointment could ~~only~~ have been made only under those rules. His appointment ~~must~~ was one by nomination in connection with the recruitment by competition after the examination held in Nov^r 1907, even though some months elapsed after the examination before the nomination was made. There is absolutely nothing to show that it was H. H's intention to set aside or modify the Civil Service Rules of 1907 in so far as Mr Venkata-

-rangam was concerned, r. Mr Venkataraugam's claim that his case is not governed by the rule of June 07 in the matter of probation etc ~~seems to~~ is clearly untenable. It goes without saying that it is ~~good~~ ~~without doubt~~ always open to H. H. should he be so graciously pleased, to show to any officer any concession or grant or increase of pay etc that H. H. pleases, but unless any such intention is expressed, the ordinary rules must be applied. Under these ordinary rules Mr Venkataraugam has to undergo a period of 3 years' probation before he can be confirmed as an asst Commissioner of the 5th class, Schedule B.

Dewan Thirumpada CRS. 26/8/10 CSB

The Officer himself practically concedes that he has no right to confirmation after 2 years, and he is right.
